

FOND8

Fond8 is an Italian DJ, producer and artist whose sound is deeply rooted in house music and contemporary club culture.

Combining influences from House, Jackin House, Tech House and Nu Disco, Fond8 has developed a distinctive musical identity built around infectious grooves, driving basslines and dancefloor-focused energy. His productions blend classic house influences with modern sounds, creating records designed to connect with both DJs and club audiences worldwide.

Over the years, Fond8 has released a wide range of original productions and remixes through labels including Metropolitan Music, Metropolitan Recordings, Mattei & Omich Music and other respected independent imprints. His music has reached international audiences through leading digital platforms, specialist charts and DJ support across the global house music scene.

As both a producer and performer, Fond8 is driven by a passion for underground dance music and an ongoing desire to explore new creative directions. Whether in the studio or behind the decks, his goal remains the same: delivering quality music with groove, energy and authenticity at its core.

With a growing catalogue of releases and a constantly evolving artistic vision, Fond8 continues to establish himself as a respected DJ and producer within the international house music community.
