

STEFF DAXX

Steff Daxx is an Italian singer, songwriter and producer whose work blends soulful vocals, infectious melodies and contemporary dance music.

Drawing inspiration from house, disco, funk and soul, he has developed a distinctive style that combines strong songwriting with dancefloor-focused productions. His ability to craft memorable hooks and authentic vocal performances has made him a valued collaborator within the international house music scene.

Over the years, Steff Daxx has worked closely with Mattei & Omich and Re-Tide, contributing as a songwriter, vocalist and producer to numerous releases. His voice and songwriting have featured on a wide range of house and disco records released worldwide through leading labels and digital platforms.

Whether behind the microphone, in the studio or as a songwriter, Steff Daxx brings passion, musicality and groove to every project, creating music that connects classic influences with contemporary club culture.

With an expanding catalogue of original productions, collaborations and remixes, Steff Daxx continues to establish himself as a complete artist, expressing himself as a singer, songwriter, musician and producer, while blending classic influences with a contemporary musical vision.