

VITTORIA HYDE

Vittoria Hyde is a singer, DJ, producer and radio personality whose career spans music, broadcasting and live performance, building a unique artistic path defined by versatility, experience and a strong musical identity.

Throughout her career, she has worked with some of Italy's leading radio networks, including Virgin Radio, Radio DeeJay and Radio m2o, becoming a familiar and respected voice within the country's music scene.

Today, Vittoria Hyde focuses on house music, combining her experience as a vocalist, songwriter and performer with a contemporary club-driven sound. Her productions blend groove, energy and personality, creating records designed for the dancefloor while maintaining a clear and recognizable artistic vision.

A defining element of her music is the use of her own voice, incorporating vocals and spoken-word performances that add character and authenticity to her productions. This distinctive approach has helped establish a recognizable sound within today's house music landscape.

Her music has been released on respected international labels including Nervous Records, Milk & Sugar Recordings, Mattei & Omich Music and Let There Be House Records.

Known for her energetic DJ sets, strong stage presence and natural ability to connect with audiences, Vittoria Hyde continues to bring her distinctive style to clubs and dancefloors across Europe.
